What is the Weinberg Papers Archive Project?

- Preserving the Children's Museum Collection of 200 boxes of Weinberg's personal papers, presentations, and correspondence
- Preparing the Collection
- Digitizing the Collection
- Sharing the Collection
- Featuring the Collection in an Exhibit

Why did Alvin Give Papers to Children's Museum?

- Shared the Museum's mission of Education
- Shared the Museum's mission of Preserving and Teaching Oak Ridge History
- Shared the Museum's mission of improving the lives of our families
- Trusted Selma Shapiro, the Museums Director for 31 years.
- Trusted a non-governmental organization with his best interests

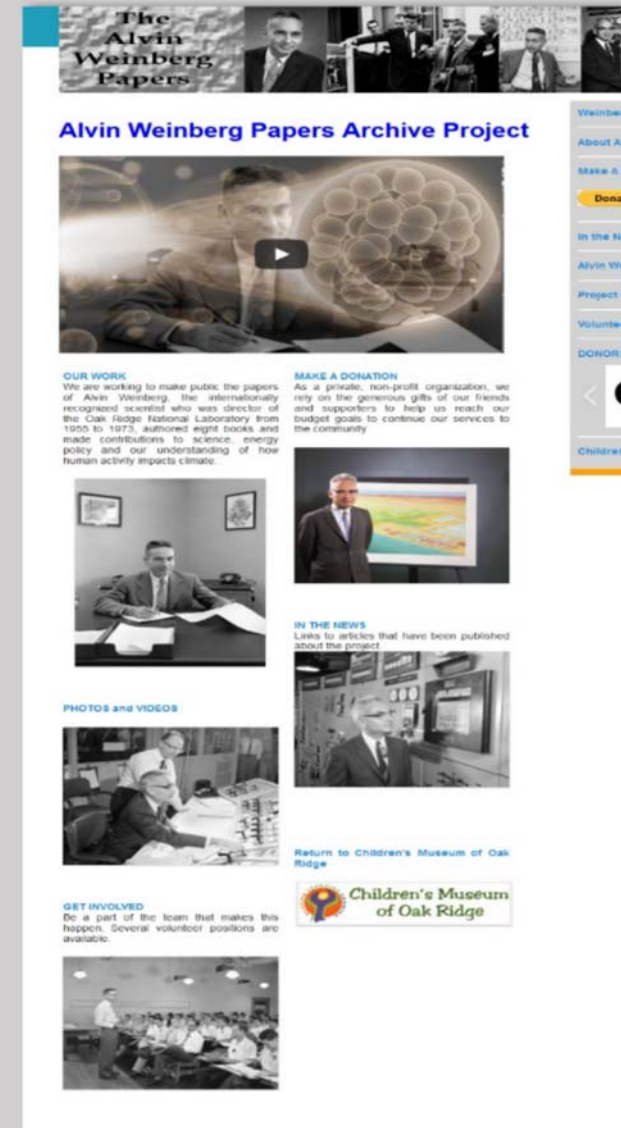

Why is the Project Important?

- The collection of papers continues to have significance today and for future generations
- Dr. Weinberg shaped Oak Ridge's history, and his legacy should be preserved.
- Visionary leader in science, known world-wide for his contributions to many and varied scientific disciplines
- We have to teach future generations about who Weinberg was, and celebrate him as a hometown hero.

How are we accomplishing the task?

- Robust Project Team
- Paid part-time Archivist
- Volunteer Publicists
- Web Page and Social Media
- Grants for Exhibit
- Raising Funds
- Volunteers

The Alvin Weinberg Papers

Alvin Weinberg Papers Archive Project

OUR WORK
We are working to make public the papers of Alvin Weinberg, the internationally recognized scientist who was director of the Oak Ridge National Laboratory from 1955 to 1973, authored eight books and made contributions to science, energy policy and our understanding of how human activity impacts climate.

MAKE A DONATION
As a private, non-profit organization, we rely on the generous gifts of our friends and supporters to help us reach our budget goals to continue our services to the community.
